

Caption time

Mrs. Maneli found some interesting facts in a non-fiction book about animals. Read the caption then draw a picture for each one.

'The adult male lion has a mane.'

'Elephants use their tusks to break down trees.'

A caption is a brief sentence or label for a picture. These are captions from a non-fiction book. Show learners a range of non-fiction books. Look at these books' features - contents page, titles, heading, sub-headings, labels, captions, pictures, photos, diagrams etc. Are learners able to read the caption and identify what they must draw? Learners must draw a picture related to the caption.

Writing
