

Writing with the -en and -at sounds

p is for pot

d is for dog

m is for mom

t is for tap

h is for hat

p is for pot.

d is for dog.

m is for mom.

t is for tap.

h is for hat.

Use the letters in the treasure chest below and -en to make the name of each picture on the next page. The first one has been done for you.

Write each word three times, leaving a finger space between each one.

Go through the consonant sounds in the treasure chest with learners beforehand. Practise each sound used in this activity with the class verbally, many times. For example, p- is for paper, d- is for dog, m- is for mother, t- is for toy, h- is for happy.
