

Write an expressive postcard

A postcard is a way of sending a message without an envelope. It is usually a short message explaining what you have done or seen. A postcard always has a picture on the front – from the place where it is sent from. e.g. Botanical Gardens.

Lerato went on a visit to the city with Gogo. She did many exciting things and wanted to tell Andrew all about it. Gogo taught Lindiwe how to write a postcard. There are a few important things you need to remember.

Name of the person who you are sending the postcard to.

Where the postcard comes from.

Dear Andrew

Botanical Gardens

Gogo and I are having a wonderful time. We visited the wonderful Botanical Gardens. There were so many beautiful flowers. We had a picnic and it was lots of fun. I cannot wait to see you and Baby Cow. I hope you are having a good holiday.
