

Homonyms

Homonyms are words which sound the same but that are spelt differently.
Read the sentences below. Choose the correct word and write it in the space.

I blew/blue the whistle really hard.

The winter knight/night is very cold.

Would/Wood you like to come to my house
to play?

The factory has lots of steal/steel.

You cannot hold a hot dish with your bare/bear hands.

The window pain/pane has been fixed, so now we can see through it.

Find the words in the word search.

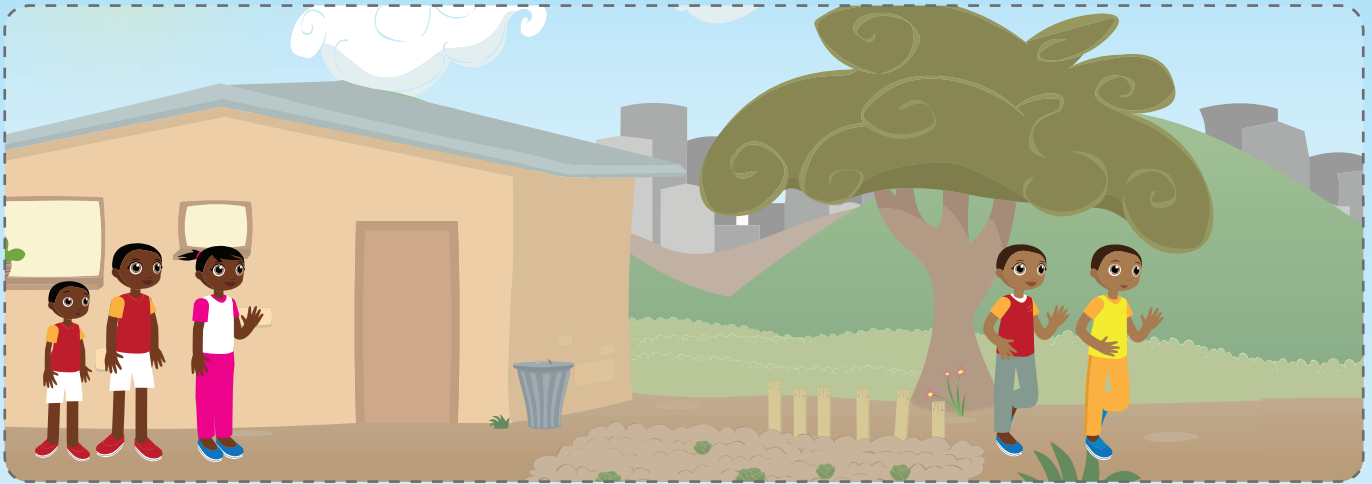

W	A	B	S	C	D
O	H	G	T	F	E
U	B	L	E	W	L
L	A	I	E	J	K
D	R	O	L	N	M
P	E	P	A	N	E
N	I	G	H	T	Q

Reading and Phonics

Uses words that sound the same but are spelt differently such as 'pair' and 'pear', 'hair' and 'hare'.

Here is Lerato's homonym joke!

Why did number six cry? Because seven ate nine!

Here is a tricky story, using words which sound the same but are spelt differently.

Fill in there or their.

Once upon a time were five children who lived with mother, father, grandma and granddad in a funny little house.

was no front garden but was a yard at the back.

They were all very happy, but were times when they all agreed that it would be nice if everyone had own room. "Still," they all said, "–we've got each other!"