

Adverbs

Adverbs are words that tell us more about verbs or doing words. Adverbs add to what we know about verbs by telling us more about them. Without adverbs, sentences would be dull. Adverbs describe actions. Most adverbs end in -ly.

Complete the sentences below by choosing the best adverb from the choices given. Colour it in. The first one has been done for you.

On her walk to school, Lerato is careful of dog that growls suddenly

fiercely

sweetly

In the morning, Lerato smiles at her friends lazily

happily

hungrily

Lerato begins her school day by reading greatly

awfully

quietly

To get her sums right, she must think carefully

eagerly

gently

When it is time for break, Lerato eats savagely

slowly

proudly

At break, Lerato and her friends play together

gently

meanly

quickly

Lerato always tries to speak to her friends grimly

gladly

nicely

Lerato likes the way her ballet teacher moves so gracefully

bravely

keenly

In her books, Lerato is good at writing slyly

neatly

nosily

Her best friend makes her laugh strongly

heartily

madly

During Life Skills, Lerato paints

artistically

stupidly

carelessly

After school, Lerato sings in a choir softly

painfully

tunefully

Athletic's Day is such fun. Lerato runs very silently

quickly

fiercely

Lerato is tired by the evening. Its time to rest loudly

peacefully

restlessly

Lerato never forgets to brush her teeth so that they shine colourfully

eagerly

brightly

Writing

Identifies and uses adverbs.