QUESTION 5: MULTIMEDIA AND NEW MEDIA – ALTERNATIVE CONTEMPORARY AND POPULAR ART FORMS IN SOUTH AFRICA

Cape Town-born artist, Haroon Gunn-Salie, created an installation of 17 figures using mixed media. It has an accompanying soundtrack, which he has titled Songs for Sabotage. The figures represent the striking mine workers who were shot by police during the first violent encounter at the Lonmin mine in Marikana on 16 August 2012. They started singing Senzenia just before the shooting began.

Polish artist, Magdalena Abakanowicz, created an installation of 106 three-metre tall 'bodies' portraying the horrors during World War II. By placing them in a public space, ordinary people can interact with them.

5.1 Compare FIGURE 5a with 5b by considering the following:

- Why do you think the artist chose to depict the incomplete figures?
- Why have the artists in both installations chosen to use repetitive figures?
- How would you describe the style of the figures and the impact they have on the viewers?
- Do you think that the artists have been successful in conveying their message? Give reasons for your answer.

(7)

5.2 Which artwork is more successful in conveying its message? Give reasons for your answer.
