Answer ALL the questions on the novel that you have studied.

QUESTION 1: CRY, THE BELOVED COUNTRY

Read the extracts from the novel below and answer the questions set on each. The number of marks allocated to each question serves as a guide to the expected length of your answer.

NOTE: Answer the questions set on BOTH extracts, i.e. QUESTION 1.1 AND QUESTION 1.2.

1.1 EXTRACT A

[Stephen Kumalo and Msimangu are walking together.]

I shall walk slowly up the street, he said. You must tell them – he pointed with his hand.

– I shall tell them, my friend.

So he told them, and having told them, closed the front door on the wailing of the women, for such is their custom. Slowly he followed the bent figure up the street, saw him nodding as he walked, saw the people turning. Would age now swiftly overtake him? Would this terrible nodding last for all his days, so that men said aloud in his presence, it is nothing, he is old and does nothing but forget? And would he nod as though he too were saying, Yes, it is nothing, I am old and do nothing but forget? But who would know that he said, I do nothing but remember?

Msimangu caught him up at the top of the hill, and took his arm, and it was like walking with a child or with one that was sick. So they came to the shop. And at the shop Kumalo turned, and closed his eyes, and his lips were moving. Then he opened his eyes and turned to Msimangu.

– Do not come further, he said. It is I who must do this.

And then he went into the shop.

Yes, the bull voice was there, loud and confident.

[Book 1, Chapter 14]

- 1.1.1 Choose a description from COLUMN B that matches a name in COLUMN A. Write only the letter (A–E) next to the question number (1.1.1(a) to 1.1.1(d)) in the ANSWER BOOK.

1.2 EXTRACT B

[The judge delivers the verdict.]

Jarvis sits stern and erect. The young white man looks before him and frowns fiercely. The girl sits like the child she is, her eyes are fixed on the Judge, not on her lover.

I sentence you, Absalom Kumalo, to be returned to custody, and to be hanged by the neck until you are dead. And may the Lord have mercy upon your soul. 5

The Judge rises, and the people rise. But not all is silent. The guilty one falls to the floor, crying and sobbing. And there is a woman wailing, and an old man crying. Tixo, Tixo. No one calls for silence, though the Judge is not quite gone. For who can stop the heart from breaking? 10

They come out of the Court, the white on one side, the black on the other, according to the custom. But the young white man breaks the custom, and he and Msimangu help the old and broken man, one on each side of him. It is not often that such a custom is broken. It is only when there is a deep experience that such a custom is broken. The young man's brow is set, and he looks fiercely before him. That is partly because it is a deep experience, and partly because of the custom that is being broken. For such a thing is not lightly done. 15

[Book 2, Chapter 11]

1.2.1 Why is the following statement FALSE?

James Jarvis (line 1) attends the court case because he is the owner of High Place. (1)

1.2.2 Refer to lines 2–3 ('The girl sits ... on her lover').

State TWO ways in which Stephen Kumalo assists this young girl. (2)

1.2.3 Choose the correct answer to complete the following sentence.

Write only the letter (A–D) next to the question number (1.2.3) in the ANSWER BOOK.

The word Tixo, as used in line 9, means ...

- A lawyer.
- B sir.
- C God.
- D judge. (1)

- 1.2.4 Refer to lines 9–10 ('No one calls ... heart from breaking').
Explain the attitude of the court officials in these lines. (2)
- 1.2.5 Where does this 'young white man' (line 12) work? (1)
- 1.2.6 Consider the novel as a whole. Explain the irony of James Jarvis's offer to assist with the restoration of Ndotsheni despite the outcome of the court case. (2)
- 1.2.7 What does this extract reveal about the young man's character?
Substantiate your answer. (2)
- 1.2.8 One of the themes in this novel is suffering.
Discuss this theme with reference to James Jarvis and his family. (3)
- 1.2.9 John Kumalo makes a good decision by going to Johannesburg.
Discuss your view. (3)

QUESTION 2: STRANGE CASE OF DR JEKYLL AND MR HYDE

Read the extracts from the novel below and answer the questions set on each. The number of marks allocated to each question serves as a guide to the expected length of your answer.

NOTE: Answer the questions set on BOTH extracts, i.e. QUESTION 2.1 AND QUESTION 2.2.

2.1 EXTRACT C

[Mr Utterson engages an unwilling Mr Hyde in a conversation.]

'Yes,' returned Mr Hyde, 'it is as well we have met; and à propos, you should have my address.' And he gave a number of a street in Soho.

'Good God!' thought Mr Utterson, 'can he too have been thinking of the will?' but he kept his feelings to himself and only grunted in acknowledgement of the address. 5

'And now,' said the other, 'how did you know me?'

'By description,' was the reply.

'Whose description?'

'We have common friends,' said Mr Utterson.

'Common friends?' echoed Mr Hyde, a little hoarsely. 'Who are they?' 10

'Jekyll, for instance,' said the lawyer.

'He never told you,' cried Mr Hyde, with a flush of anger. 'I did not think you would have lied.'

'Come,' said Mr Utterson, 'that is not fitting language.'

The other snarled aloud into a savage laugh; and the next moment, with 15 extraordinary quickness, he had unlocked the door and disappeared into the house.

The lawyer stood awhile when Mr Hyde had left him, the picture of disquietude. Then he began slowly to mount the street, pausing every step or two and putting his hand to his brow like a man in mental perplexity. The 20 problem he was thus debating as he walked was one of a class that is rarely solved.

[Search for Mr Hyde]

2.1.1 Choose a description from COLUMN B that matches the name in COLUMN A. Write only the letter (A–E) next to the question numbers (2.1.1(a) to 2.1.1(d)) in the ANSWER BOOK.

2.2 EXTRACT D

[Dr Jekyll writes his statement about Mr Hyde.]

Men have before hired bravos to transact their crimes, while their own person and reputation sat under shelter. I was the first that ever did so for his pleasures. I was the first that could thus plod in the public eye with a load of genial respectability, and in a moment, like a schoolboy, strip off these	5
lendings and spring headlong into the sea of liberty. But for me, in my impenetrable mantle, the safety was complete. Think of it – I did not even exist! Let me but escape into my laboratory-door, give me a second or two to mix and swallow the draught that I had always standing ready; and whatever he had done, Edward Hyde would pass away like the stain of breath upon a mirror; and there in his stead, quietly at home, trimming the midnight lamp in his study, a man who could afford to laugh at suspicion, would be Henry Jekyll.	10
The pleasures which I made haste to seek in my disguise were, as I have said, undignified; I would scarce use a harder term. But in the hands of Edward Hyde they soon began to turn towards the monstrous. When I would come back from the excursions, I was often plunged into a kind of wonder at my vicarious depravity.	15

[Henry Jekyll's full statement of the case]

2.2.1 Refer to lines 5–6 ('But for me ... safety was complete').

Why does Dr Jekyll consider his mantle to be impenetrable? (2)

2.2.2 Refer to lines 14–15 ('But in the ... towards the monstrous').

(a) Name ONE 'monstrous' deed Mr Hyde commits. (1)

(b) Why is the following statement FALSE?

Mr Utterson only finds out about the monstrous deeds of Mr Hyde after he has read Henry Jekyll's full statement of the case. (1)

2.2.3 Choose the correct answer to complete the following sentence. Write only the letter (A–D) next to the question number (2.2.3) in the ANSWER BOOK.

Dr Jekyll conducts this experiment because he wants to prove ...

- A he is better than Dr Lanyon.
- B the duality of human nature.
- C that man is always respected.
- D that evil will always prevail. (1)

2.2.4 Explain Dr Jekyll's attitude towards Mr Hyde in this extract. (2)

- 2.2.5 What does this extract reveal about the character of Dr Jekyll?
Substantiate your answer. (2)
- 2.2.6 Consider the novel as a whole. Explain the irony of Dr Jekyll's belief that Mr Hyde would disappear whenever he wants him to. (2)
- 2.2.7 One of the themes in the novel is logic versus the illogical.
Discuss this theme by referring to Dr Lanyon and Dr Jekyll. (3)
- 2.2.8 In Henry Jekyll's Full Statement of the Case he says that it was 'Hyde, after all, and Hyde alone, that was guilty of these cruel deeds'.
Discuss your view. (3)

[Duncan awaits the arrival of Macbeth and Banquo.]

DUNCAN	There's no art To find the mind's construction in the face; He was a gentleman on whom I built An absolute trust.
	Enter Macbeth, Banquo, Ross and Angus.	5
	(to Macbeth) O worthiest cousin! The sin of my ingratitude even now Was heavy on me. Thou art so far before, That swiftest wing of recompense is slow To overtake thee. Would thou hadst less deserved, That the proportion both of thanks and payment Might have been mine! Only I have left to say, More is thy due than more than all can pay.	10
MACBETH	The service and loyalty I owe, In doing it, pays itself. Your highness' part Is to receive our duties, and our duties Are to your throne and state, children and servants; Which do but what they should, by doing everything Safe toward your love and honour.	15
DUNCAN	Welcome hither. I have begun to plant thee, and will labour To make thee full of growing. Noble Banquo, Thou hast no less deserved, nor must be known No less to have done so; let me infold thee, And hold thee to my heart.	20
		25

BANQUO	There if I grow, The harvest is your own.
DUNCAN	My plenteous joys, Wanton in fullness, seek to hide themselves In drops of sorrow. Sons, kinsmen, Thanes, And you whose places are the nearest, know, We will establish our estate upon Our eldest, Malcolm ...	30

[Macbeth's visit to the witches.]

1ST APPARITION	Macbeth! Macbeth! Macbeth! Beware Macduff. Beware the Thane of Fife. Dismiss me. Enough.
	Descends
MACBETH	Whate'er thou art, for thy good caution, thanks. Thou hast harped my fear aright. But one word more -	5
1ST WITCH	He will not be commanded. Here's another, More potent than the first.
	Thunder. Second Apparition: a bloody child.
2ND APPARITION	Macbeth! Macbeth! Macbeth!
MACBETH	Had I three ears, I'd hear thee.	10
2ND APPARITION	Be bloody, bold and resolute. Laugh to scorn The power of man, for none of woman born Shall harm Macbeth.
	Descends
MACBETH	Then live, Macduff! What need I fear of thee? But yet I'll make assurance double sure, And take a bond of fate; thou shalt not live; That I may tell pale-hearted fear it lies, And sleep in spite of thunder.	15
	Thunder. Third apparition: a child crowned, with a tree in his hand.	20
	What is this, That rises like the issue of a king, And wears upon his baby-brow the round And top of sovereignty?	25
1ST WITCH	Listen but speak not to't.
3RD APPARITION	Be lion-mettled, proud, and take no care Who chafes, who frets, or where conspirers are. Macbeth shall never vanquished be until Great Birnam Wood to high Dunsinane Hill Shall come against him.	30
MACBETH	Descends That will never be! Who can impress the forest, bid the tree Unfix his earth-bound root?	35

[Mr M and Isabel are talking.]

MR M	My apologies for descending on you out of the blue like this, but I've been looking for you high and low. One of your schoolmates said I would find you here.
ISABEL	Don't apologise. It's a pleasure to see you again, Mr M.
MR M	[Delighted] Mr M! How wonderful to hear you call me that.	5
ISABEL	You must blame Thami for my familiarity.
MR M	Blame him? On the contrary, I will thank him most gratefully. Hearing you call me Mr M like all the others at my school gives me the happy feeling that you are also a member of my very extended family.	10
ISABEL	I'd like to be.
MR M	Then welcome to the family. Miss ...
ISABEL	[Before he can say it] Isabel, if you please Mr M, just plain Isabel.
MR M	[Bowing] Then doubly welcome, young Isabel.	15
ISABEL	[Curtsy] I thank you, kind sir.
MR M	You have great charm, young lady, I can understand now how you managed to leave so many friends behind you after only one visit to the school. Hardly a day passes without someone stopping me and asking: When is Isabel Dyson and her team coming back?	20
ISABEL	Well? When are we?
MR M	You would still welcome a return visit?
ISABEL	But of course.
MR M	Why so emphatically 'of course'?	25
ISABEL	Because I enjoyed the first one so emphatically very much.
MR M	The unruly behaviour of my young family wasn't too much for you? Anything else?

[Isabel speaks about her and Thami's friendship.]

ISABEL	It doesn't mean the end of everything though, does it? I mean ... can we go on meeting, just as friends?
THAMI	[Warily] When?
ISABEL	Oh ... I mean, you know, like any time. Next week! [Pause] I'm not talking about the competition, Thami. I accept that it's dead. 5 I think it's a pity ... but so what. I'm talking now about you and me, just as friends. [She waits. She realises. She collects herself.] So our friendship is an old-fashioned idea after all. Well don't waste your time here. You better get going and look after ...whatever it is that's beginning. And good luck! 10 [Thami starts to go] No! Thami come back here!! [Struggling ineffectually to control her anger and pain] There is something very stupid somewhere and it's most probably me but I can't help it ... it just doesn't make sense! I know it does to you and I'm sure it's just my white 15 selfishness and ignorance that is stopping me from understanding, but it still doesn't make sense. Why can't we go on seeing each other and meeting as friends? Tell me what is wrong with our friendship?
THAMI	You're putting words in my mouth, Isabel. I didn't say there was 20 anything wrong with it. But others won't see it the way we do.
ISABEL	Who? Your Comrades?
THAMI	Yes.

NOTE: Answer the questions set on BOTH extracts, i.e. QUESTION 5.1 AND QUESTION 5.2.

5.1 'NEXT DOOR'EXTRACT I

[Paul hears his neighbours arguing.]

A door slammed next door. Now someone hammered on a door.
 Paul looked down into his microscope once more, looked at nothing – while a prickling sensation spread over his skin. He faced the truth: The man and woman would kill each other, if he didn't stop them.
 He beat on the wall with his fist. 'Mr. Harger! Stop it!' he cried. 5
 'Mrs. Harger! Stop it!' 'For Ollie from Lavinia!' All-Night Sam cried back at him. 'For Ruth from Carl, who'll never forget last Tuesday! For Wilber from Marv, who's lonesome tonight! Here's the Sauter-Finnegan Band asking, Love, What Are You Doing to My Heart?' 10
 Next door, crockery smashed, filling a split second of radio silence. And then the tidal wave of music drowned everything again.
 Paul stood by the wall, trembling in his helplessness. 'Mr. Harger! Mrs. Harger! Please.'
 'Remember the number!' said All-Night Sam. 'Milton nine-three- 15 thousand!'
 Dazed, Paul went to the phone and dialled the number.
 'WJCD,' said the switchboard operator.
 'Would you kindly connect me with All-Night Sam?' said Paul.
 'Hello!' said All-Night Sam. He was eating, talking with a full mouth. In 20 the background, Paul could hear sweet, bleating music, the original of what was rending the radio next door.
 'I wonder if I might make a dedication,' said Paul.
 'Dunno why not,' said Sam.

5.2 'TRANSFORMING MOMENTS'

EXTRACT J

[The narrator goes on a weekend away.]

We had just walked past the minister's house when a young boy ran up to us. He said the minister wanted to see me. I went with him and I was about to walk into the kitchen when the minister himself came out and gave me fast instructions that I must go and get my weekend bag packed because he was going to visit his family and I was coming with him. I stood there at the top of the stairs open-mouthed, unable to move or speak. He looked at me and laughed out loud. He told me we had less than an hour to go, so I should run. Without a word I turned and took the five steps in one big jump. Running at top speed, clutching my books tightly to my chest – I realised that I was not alone in the world – everyone was staring at me. I tried to pull myself together and put a hand across my lips to hide the big grin. 5 10

Once in my dormitory I did not know what to take or leave, I was not exactly used to going on weekends. I quickly got out of my school uniform and into my best dress. I ran to the bathroom to wet my hair a little so I could try to comb it. 15

SECTION D: POETRY

In this section there are questions set on the following poems:

- 'Spring' by Gerard Manley Hopkins
- 'Everything has changed (except graves)' by Mzi Mahola

NOTE: Answer the questions set on BOTH poems, i.e. QUESTION 6.1 AND QUESTION 6.2.

QUESTION 6

- 6.1 Read the poem carefully and then answer the questions which follow. The number of marks allocated to each question serves as a guide to the expected length of your answer.

Spring – Gerard Manley Hopkins

1 Nothing is so beautiful as Spring –
 2 When weeds, in wheels, shoot long and lovely and lush;
 3 Thrush's eggs look little low heavens, and thrush
 4 Through the echoing timber does so rinse and wring
 5 The ear, it strikes like lightnings to hear him sing;
 6 The glassy peartree leaves and blooms, they brush
 7 The descending blue; that blue is all in a rush
 8 With richness; the racing lambs too have fair their fling.

9 What is all this juice and all this joy?
 10 A strain of the earth's sweet being in the beginning
 11 In Eden garden. – Have, get, before it cloy,
 12 Before it cloud, Christ, lord, and sour with sinning,
 13 Innocent mind and Mayday in girl and boy,
 14 Most, O maid's child, thy choice and worthy the winning.

- 6.1.1 Complete the following sentences by using the words in the list below. Write only the word next to the question numbers (6.1.1(a) to 6.1.1(d)) in the ANSWER BOOK.

rheterical; Petrarchan; sestet; symbolic; Shakespearean;

Everything has changed (except graves) – Mzi Mahola

1 I stood at the ruins
 2 of my former school
 3 where I was patiently moulded;
 4 wild plants own every space now;
 5 my soul was paralyzed.
 6 What happened to the roofs
 7 the doors and windows?
 8 Can these dumb lonely walls
 9 still recognise me?
 10 Everything has changed;
 11 the ground where we ran and laughed
 12 and the corner of the playground
 13 where I pummelled a schoolmate almost to pulp
 14 are scarfed with wattle
 15 to conceal my shame.
 16 A short distance away
 17 stands a renovated Church
 18 (a Dutch Reformed formerly,
 19 now a Methodist)
 20 embraced by a mute little cemetery
 21 that claims the past
 22 (the dividing fence has vanished)
 23 though growth strangles it to near extinction;
 24 cold names of departed whites
 25 who were part of this community
 26 and made monumental contributions
 27 are etched on the headstones.
 28 Sometimes whites come here
 29 to clean and put flowers
 30 on their family graves;
 31 a voice whispers next to me
 32 but I do not recognise its face
 33 because Lushington has changed
 34 except the graveyard.
